

THE SPEAKERS

Dr. Ophelia Garmon-Brown, MD, MDiv, is a physician, minister, volunteer, caregiver and advocate for the health and well-being of the Charlotte community and many people beyond.

Dr. Garmon-Brown was born in Detroit, Michigan. She has two children, LaShawn and Spenser, and she is a very proud grandmother.

She has spent decades caring for people around the world. As a board-certified family practitioner and Vice President of Business & Community Partnerships with Novant Health (Presbyterian Hospital), she has touched the lives of thousands of patients from Charlotte (her home since 1980) to distant countries around the world in her work as a medical missionary.

Dr. James D. McLeod, MD, MBA, is a physician and advocate for the health and well-being of many in Robeson County and beyond. He currently serves as a physician with Physician Practices Group of Southeastern Health.

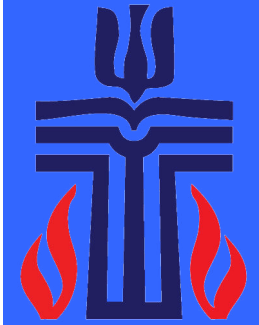

He has three adult children and seven grandchildren. He is a native of Lumberton and Robeson County. He was a banker for 21 years and is now retired as Senior Vice President with BB&T.

Dr. McLeod is an active leader at First Presbyterian Church as teacher and currently chairs the Pastor Nominating Committee. As a physician, he has led many medical mission trips abroad. He serves Robeson County with a medical practice at the AJ Robinson Medical Center in Lumberton.

Phone: 910.739.7581 • Fax: 910.739.9171 • www.jpelumberton.org

7th Annual Douglas H. Clark
& Carolyn J. Clark Convocation
First Presbyterian Church
10th and Chestnut St.
P.O. Box 1061
Lumberton, NC 28359

7th Annual
Douglas H. Clark & Carolyn J. Clark
CONVOCATION

“Healthcare for People on the Margins:

Spiritual
Mandate for Us,
for Who?”

February
1 & 2
2014

Dr. Ophelia Garmon-Brown
Dr. James D. McLeod

First Presbyterian Church
Lumberton, NC

The 7th Annual
Douglas H. Clark &
Carolyn J. Clark
Convocation

Upon the death of Lumberton physician and First Presbyterian Elder Emeritus, Douglas H. Clark in 1999, the Session of First Presbyterian Church established the Clark Family Endowment Fund with the intent of enhancing educational opportunities for the church. The primary event supported by the Endowment is the annual Douglas H. Clark and Carolyn J. Clark Convocation.

Drawing on the Latin roots of the word "Convocation," the Clark Convocation will be a time when the church and community are "called together" with a leading scholar, teacher, musician or leader so that we might learn from and with one another, grow in faith and be empowered for ministry.

Previous Clark Convocations have been led by Frances Taylor Gench, John and Missy Kuykendall, David Eicher, Pete Peery, J. Herbert Nelson and David LaMotte.

The 2014 Clark Convocation will be led by Dr. Ophelia Garmon-Brown as our keynote speaker and by Dr. James D. McLeod, co-leader and speaker on Saturday and Sunday, February 1-2, 2014.

Saturday, February 1, 2014

(Childcare available upon request)

11:00 am

Fred Rose

"Housekeeping, Prayer and Introduction"

11:15 am

Dr. James D. McLeod

"The High Cost of Ill Health"

12:00 pm

Lunch—Discussions at tables
$5/adults & $2/child (12 and under)

1:00 pm

Keynote Speaker

Dr. Ophelia Garmon-Brown

*"Caring for the poor and uninsured;
now or later?"*

1:45 pm

Group discussion and response

2:15 pm

Closing devotional

All activities on Saturday will take place in the fellowship hall

Sunday, February 2, 2014

8:30 am Contemporary Service

11:00 am Traditional Service

Dr. Ophelia Garmon-Brown

"Do You want to be healed?"

9:45 am

Sunday School panel

(Fellowship Hall)

2014 DOUGLAS H. CLARK AND CAROLYN J. CLARK CONVOCATION REGISTRATION FORM

Attendee Name (s): _____

Address, City, State, Zip: _____

Phone: _____ E-Mail: _____

1/we will be attending: _____ Number of Persons _____ Request Childcare _____

Saturday 4:00 PM Workshop _____ ($5/adult and $2/child)

Saturday Community Dinner _____ ($5/adult and $2/child)

Saturday Evening Concert _____ ($5/adult and $2/child)

Sunday Adult Sunday School _____

I would like to make a donation to the Clark Family Endowment $ _____

Please make your check payable to First Presbyterian Church

Please detach this form and mail or drop off by January 20, 2014 to:
First Presbyterian Church
Attn: Clark Convocation
P.O. Box 1061
Lumberton, NC 28359